

THE BOURBON NEWS.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

VOL. II.

PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY: FRIDAY, JUNE 8, 1883.

NO. 134.

MONDAY will be Court-day at Carlisle and Lexington.

HENRY JONES, of Montgomery county, has an American copper coin of 1787.

Mrs. Clara Graves, of Newport, is the guest of Rev. D. B. Beardsley and family. Joe. K. Redmon, Jr., has sold eighteen acres of land to Robt. O. Turner, at $40 per acre.

CHEAP tickets to-morrow to the Lorton races at South Covington. Tickets good until the 14th.

WALKER THORNTON has returned from the Lexington Asylum, to his home near Lair's Station, much improved.

COL. R. S. CHURCH, of Louisville, was in our city last night, laboring in the interest of the Southern Herald and the temperance cause.

This engineering corps of the Paris, Frankfort and Georgetown railroad is now at work about five miles beyond North Middletown.

GEORGE T. FRENCH, a brother of Judge H. K. French, Cashier of the Mt. Sterling National Bank, was killed by the cars, near Coalton, Wednesday.

FRANK & Co., of Carlisle, sold to R. B. Hatcher, of this city, 15,000 pounds of wool, aggregating near $4,000. It was shipped direct to the East.

A SHORT force now works on the K. C. extension near town, and the last cut will be finished and the track laid to the main line in a very few days.

MANY of our citizens say that Mayor Purnell is the best Mayor that Paris ever had. His little justice mill grinds regularly every morning, rain or shine.

A RIDE to North Middletown and back Tuesday, with a watchful eye to the beautiful woodlands on both sides of the pike, did not reveal a squirrel on the entire route.

The young ladies of the Bourbon Female College will be treated to a dance at their institute to-morrow. Their commencement exercises will take place next week.

You can get a barrel of oil off of any carpet or wooden stool by applying buck wheat plentifully and faithfully. Never put water to such a greasy spot, or liquid of any kind.

THE Supreme court has affirmed the decision of the lower court, allowing the widow of Ed. Benick rights judgment against the Knights of Honor for a large sum sued for.

The trotting horse men of Lexington, will commence Saturday with two races in the 2-40 class, and will give free matinees every Saturday at the fair ground's track. No betting allowed.

John B. Dale, of Bath, and Miss Rhoda Honaker, of Bourbon county, were married in the parlor of the National Hotel yesterday morning by Judge J. H. Hargraves.—(Mt. Sterling Sentinel).

The Postmaster General will have the different mails delivered from the trains to our postoffice in less than thirty minutes after the arrival of the trains, he will oblige 4,000 grumbling citizens.

DURING the performance of Barnum's circus at Chicago Tuesday night, the tent took fire from a lamp on one of the tent poles, and was consumed in a few minutes. No lives were lost. Loss, $16,000.

Hopkinsville has a tobacco warehouse 188 feet long and 165 feet broad, containing 306,000 brick and 300,000 feet of lumber. It has a capacity of 2,724 hogsheads of tobacco. It contains 2,000 feet of glass in the windows and transoms.

MR. and Mrs. James Hinton kindly remembered the NEWS with some very large and fine strawberries—as large as flannel walnuts. Mr. Hinton raised a large crop of some elegant varieties of berries, and markets them in our city every morning.

A tastefully home-made cover for a small stand is of a pretty shade of Canton flannel—light blue for instance—trimmed with rows of black velvet ribbon feather stitched on, and finished around the edge with woolen fringe, which one can make, if necessary, from split sephyr of color to match.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Kentucky Union Railroad in Lexington, Wednesday, the following board of officers were elected: T. J. McGibben, Harrison County, President; A. G. P. Dodge, Lexington, Vice-President and General Manager; B. P. Stoll, Lexington, Treasurer; J. M. Thomas, Paris, Secretary; Benj. Crawford, Lexington, Manager Land Department; Directors, J. M. Thomas, Wm. Tarr, T. W. Bowen, R. B. Hatcher, Bourbon county, John H. Goff, Clark County, T. J. McGibben, Harrison County, A. G. P. Dodge, R. P. Stoll, Benj. Crawford, of Lexington.

North Middletown's Gala Day.

Last Tuesday was a gala day with the citizens of North Middletown and vicinity. Silks and satins of all the mellow, subdued and crushed hues and light glows of every conceivable texture, fluttered in the breezes with that peculiar rustle of a brand-newness. It was the precinct holiday, christened "Commencement day"—more properly the day assigned for the winding up of the collegiate year at the Kentucky Classical and Business College.

North Middletown being isolated, as it were, from the balance of the county, is the peaceful village capital of a high and rolling bluegrass and woodland plain flecked here and there with plain old-fashioned mansions secluded in quiet groves of forest trees, abounding with birds of song. But we digress. It is the commencement exercises that we started to write about.

Sandwiched with a quartet of preachers and a class of ten saccharine females and two acidulous male graduates in front, and a great congress of junior class sweetness in the rear, your man-of-letters looked down on a multitude of faces wreathed in June joyousness swelling underneath a New York flower garden and millinery store, and thought that it was good, although a little peculiar to be there.

The hum of the nervous hour of 10 A. M. was broken by a short invocation by Elder J. S. Sweeney. After which, interlarded with a sweet and varied selection of music and song, the following programme was followed, constituting the commencement exercises: Essay—"Tongues in Trees;" Miss Carrie Berry, North Middletown. Essay—"Human Sympathy;" Miss Willie Hodge, Owingsville. Essay—"Things were and Otherwise;" Miss Hattie Turner, Flemingsburg. Essay—"Sweet are the uses of Adversity;" Miss Lillie Allen, Brainbridge, Ind. Essay—"Serenity in Storm;" Miss Jennie Smith, Lexington. Oration—"Everyone must act for himself;" J. M. Ford, Mt. Morrisville. Essay—"Books in Running Brooks;" Miss Alice Leighton, Owingsville. Essay—"Wandering in the Shadows;" Miss Thomas Stitt, Flemingsburg. Oration—"Valiant Quantum Potest;" Lucius I. Morse, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Essay—"No one can rise higher than his aim;" Miss Lina Rigg, Owingsville. Essay—"Imagery is made of atoms;" Miss William C. Briney, Owingsville. Essay—"Great Future;" Miss Edith Y. Shields, Hedges Station. Presentation of Diplomas—President Zollars. Address to the Graduates—Elder J. B. Briney, Covington. Benediction—Elder Cuthbert, Eminence.

The essays and orations were all good, and were well read and delivered. In fact, they were entertaining in some instances, to a high degree. Pardon our apparent invidiousness toward a little Miss whom we had not met since her butterfly days a few short years ago. We allude to Miss Tommie Stitt, daughter of H. M. Stitt, of Flemingsburg. A few years ago, a prattling babe with dimples and cheeks, playing on the green swards around the Lexington Springs Hotel. To-day, a graduate with high honors at one of the most select institutions of learning in the State. Are we getting old? Nay, we can scarcely say that. But this is a progressive age, and time works many changes. Miss Stitt is of petite stature, a blonde with clear cut Grecian features. She "wandered in the Shadows" in very measured and audible tones, in the oration based on both scriptural and scientific facts, and acquitted herself with that credit due to one of maturer years. She was dressed in all the elegance and splendor in which white ottoman silk and Spanish lace could be draped. The dress was made basque and trimmed panel skirt, with a deep fall of lace flouncing clear around the lower edge of skirt. Corset, square at the neck, and fitted in at the throat with Spanish lace, and dress panels caught up with bows of ottoman ribbon and fastened with bouquets of daisies and lilies of the valley. The dress was accompanied with white silk hose, long white kid mousquetaire gloves with white fan and slippers. Miss Lillie Allen wore a very gorgeous attire of cream satin and lace, and was the subject of much praise. Miss Willie Hodge wore an elegant overdress of crushed strawberry satin, with pink skirt. Miss Jennie Smith wore a white satin bodice, Spanish lace, puffed mill skirt with broad Hamburg trimming. Miss Carrie Berry, white satin bodice, with white mill skirt. Miss Hattie Turner, cream satin and lace. Miss Alice Leighton, cream satin and lace. Miss Lina Rigg, Ottoman silk bodice, with skirt of cream mill cloth. Miss William Briney, who read another top-top essay in the most thoroughly drilled and composed style, wore cream satin bodice, checked mill skirt. Miss Edith Shields, who also had a very telling essay, wore dotted rose and lace. Misses Ida Carpenter and Addie Foster acquitted themselves with great grace in the rendition of vocal solos.

THE ADDRESSES OF PRESIDENT ZOLLARS AND ELDER BRINEY WERE VERY PROGRESSIVE AND FILLED WITH LIVE AND SOLID THOUGHTS.

In honor of the gala day and visiting ladies, the young gentlemen of the village gave a "commencement" hop, which, we are informed, was one of rich and rare elegance, and honored the occasion in superb style.

SCINTILLATIONS.

—New hostilities come in all colors to match the dress goods.

—The light of other days—whale oil and mutton tallow.

—To watch a husband—follow him when he goes out at nights.

—A home on the rolling deep—residence in a retired canal boat.

—Flower neckties or dog collars are a pretty novelty for evening wear.

—Mrs. Geo. Jasper, of Chattanooga, is visiting her old home at this place.

—John J. Williams, of Cynthiana, speaks of moving to North Middletown to educate his children.

—Young married men have ceased to emigrate to Iowa. The State produces more twins than another in the Union.

—An Ohio widow who did all of the courting, was awarded only six dollars in a breach of promise suit, by a sensible jury.

—Wm. Tarr returned from Texas Wednesday, where he has been prospecting for a ranch. He made no purchase.

—Sullivan, the slugger, says if Mitchell is not satisfied with what he has got already he will knock the final syllable out of him.

—There are two periods in every woman's history when she can't open her mouth—before she is born and after she is dead.

—Birds' dresses are made with elegant simplicity, chicken down—the color of the newly-hatched—is the latest shade of yellow.

—The Paris Turtle Club is the latest society adrift here. They use green tortoise shells exclusively, because they are easier caught.

—A saloon keeper at Farmers, Rowan county, acts as banker for the village. His customers check out their funds by the drink, pint and quart.

—Mr. Heyl, of Falmouth, took in the dedication exercises at Cynthiana, Sunday. It is hardly necessary to mention the kind of a time he had.

—Miss Ella Joplin, of Mt. Vernon, and Mr. John Pearl, of the Mountain Echo, London, are the guests of Dr. Brooks and wife. Miss Joplin is a sister of Mrs. Brooks.

—A Lexington girl, who had refused a good looking telegraph repair man three times within six months, gave as a reason that he was too much of a wanderer, that he roamed from pole to pole, from one climb to another, and that if he did come home, he'd be insane—the fact the neighbors would be sure to talk.

Tux opera of Cinderella as rendered Tuesday evening last at the Opera House in this place by Mrs. Wilson's Music Class was an occasion in which there was a flow of song and a feast of music. The Hall was crowded, an embarrassing thing to many of the young ladies in this their first appearance before the public, still they acquitted themselves in a way that won the admiration of an appreciative audience and that spoke volumes in the praise of Mrs. Wilson's skill and success as a teacher of music. The scenic representations were truly artistic and the equipments for the evening complete. Though the exercises ran into the long hours of the night and the heat of the hall oppressive, yet the audience forgot this as they drank in the pleasures of the evening that held them as if by enchantment.

A Leaf from Dr. Atwell's Diary.

May 31.—J. W. Dorsey: Mercutrial rheumatism and blood poison. Had case several spots on the body and a large ulcer on the head, which was discharging pus freely. The pains were almost incessant; could not sleep; had no appetite, only three treatments, rests well, no pains, ulcers dried up on the body, improving rapidly.

June 1.—Mrs. Anna Wickliff: female complaint; one treatment and medicines; sent word that she was well.

June 2.—Nathan Baker: ankylosis; one treatment; slight improvement.

Henry Craig: Spasmodic asthma and dropsy; has been treated for Consumption and was given up to die; had great difficulty in breathing; swollen twice his natural size, with watery effusions. Visited him four times; improving so that I have ceased visiting him. He is out. James Mills: Chronic rheumatism; two treatments; improving rapidly.

George Scruggs: Kidney disease; one treatment; slight improvement.

Thomas Turner: Nasal Catarrh, dimness of vision, dyspepsia and liver disorder; one treatment and as yet no improvement.

Mrs. ————, freckles and few wrinkles. After a medicated face masque, she reported improvement.

MILLERSBURG.

Mrs. Dr. G. D. Judy left for St. Joseph, Mo., Wednesday.

Ernest Longmyre stuck a rake tooth through his foot Wednesday.

Four young bloods from Carlisle, acted in a very ungentle manner at church here Sunday night.

Miss Pauline Osborn is due here to-night, from Atlanta, to visit friends during commencement.

Charlie Bedford has sold his King farm near town, at $50 per acre, to a Mason county man.

Blair Armstrong is assistant clerk of the Johnson House, in the temporary absence of the proprietor.

For the benefit of the dudes, we will remark that the chances are ten to one in favor of a big rain here Sunday.

The international assembly of dudes will convene here Sunday, and at 2 p.m., the commencement races will begin.

A poll parrot taught a young Texas lady at the Female College to "go there yourself," but the lady wasn't ready to go home.

Mrs. James Collier, in company with her brother W. H. H. Johnson and Dr. Stuart, left for Hot Springs, Ark., for her health.

Sunday will be the big dry goods and millinery show day here. The persons who will not adorn themselves in grand array here on that day, are considered not worth a darn—by many.

Alex. McClintock returned Wednesday, from New Mexico, where himself and Snyder Bro.'s of Kansas City, and Johnson, of Ills., bought a ranch of 153,000 acres, one hundred miles from Santa Fe.

Thos. Costello and See Payne were thrown out of a hand car near Jellico Mountain, and Payne had a leg broken and Costello was severely injured. The gangue pulled the track and rolled down an embankment on them.

Rev. Simms, will deliver the sermon to the ladies of the Female College, Sunday night. Wednesday evening, the concert, caltheistic drill, etc. Thursday morning, elocution contest; evening, Pinafore production. Friday, commencement exercises. Seventeen graduates—1 from Kentucky, 3 from Texas, 2 from Missouri, and 1 from Louisiana.

The vote stood 24 for 14 against, and 12 not voting, in the case of employment of Elder Crane. He afterwards very indignantly asked for a standing vote. His language referred to Tuesday, although from authority supposed to know, was reported a little incorrect. He remarked that children and others contributing but little to the support of the church ought to have a proportionate influence in selecting a preacher—virtually the same as reported when he called down. Almost everyone present deducted a different construction from the remark, and a four column card from the minister will be required to satisfy everybody. We feel safe, however, in saying that he was not employed.

Persons who want to commit suicide do not jump off the Brooklyn bridge. They stay on it.

E. H. Clark, of Louisville, says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters for general debility and it far transcends any thing I ever tried."

The Trader, Trueman, Farmer and Sportsman.

The last chance at Callahan, at $25.

A Hickman county farmer has planted three hundred acres in corn.

H. M. Carpenter, of this precinct, has 40 head of 1,200 pounds weight cattle for sale.

The crop of bluegrass seed is unusually heavy in this county, and will do to gather about the 15th.

Forrest and Brice Letton shipped to Colorado last night, 60 high-grade Short-horn heifers.

Smith and Thomas, of North Middletown, held a sale of Short-horns at Haristown, Ills., yesterday.

The Sharpshooter fair has been changed from the 14th to the 7th of August, and will be held but three days.

Over 50 cattle have died in the North Middletown precinct within the last ten days, from eating white clover.

Maui S. showed a 2:08 minute gait the other day out East. She bids fair to come down to 9 in another year.

For SALE—A fine combined saddle and harness horse, first-class walker. 16-4-4. Jas. Srooks, Little Rock.

J. T. Hughes, of Fayette, sold his premium saddle mare Kate Davis, to an Ohio man for $800. She never was beaten in a fair ring.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

JUDGE T. F. HARGIS, CANDIDATE FOR
Judge of Court of Appeals.

As a political friend and supporter of Col. Jones we are surprised to witness his silly whining over a defeat obtained solely through the boorish hoghishness of his henchmen in the Convention. By the vote of Owen, Col. Jones had a majority in the Convention, but his supporters well knowing that he was not entitled to that vote and that its acceptance was but a species of stealing thought they must have the vote of Elliott to make sure of the result. While this was going on the conscience of the Owen delegates were smitten by their acts and gave their votes to Knott where they rightfully belonged. Col. Jones will make no friends by traveling over the state bellowing like a hungry calf. It is humiliating to his friends to see him acting in this manner.—[Vanceburg Courier.]

Hon. J. PROCTOR KNOTT said that it was not true that he wanted the office of Governor as a stepping-stone to the United States Senate, for he could have been a candidate for that position without being Governor, with equally as much how of election, as only two Governors had ever been honored with that office during the history of the State. "No, sir," said he, "in accepting the nomination given me, I feel that I have entered into a contract with the people of the State to serve them four years in that capacity. Of course I do not say that I wish my political life to end with the Governor's office, but will always stand ready in the future, as I have in the past, to serve the people in any place to which their preference may call me."

The Republicans in State Convention at Columbus, Wednesday, day, nominated J. B. Foraker, of Cincinnati, for Governor, by acclamation; William G. Rose, ex-Mayor of Cleveland, for Lieutenant Governor; Judge Wm. H. Upson, son, for Supreme Judge; Dwight Crowell, for Supreme Clerk; M. B. Earnheart, for Attorney General; John F. Ogilvie, for Auditor; John C. Brown, for Treasurer; and Daniel Dewolf, School Commissioner.

The Owenites News says the Owen resolutions express nothing more than the feelings of Messrs. Hallam and Settle, all the other members of the county convention having retired before the resolutions were introduced. It appears therefore that Hallam and Settle had a good time revolting. One acting as chairman and the other as secretary, their resolutions were unanimously adopted.

To-day the remains of John Howard Payne, which have already enjoyed two funerals, will be subjected to a trip to the tomb. There was no resting place for this weary wanderer's feet while he lived, and it looks as if his enthusiastic admirers don't intend he shall have any rest when dead.

Hon. J. W. Perry is a candidate for re-election to the Legislature from Owen county and if elected he will be a candidate for the next Speakership of that body. Owen to the recent grand kick for Jones over in that section, Mr. Perry will probably get left on the Speakership.

As the Republican party continues to sneer at the old ticket of Tilden and Hendricks, we think it would be advisable for the Democracy to nominated it, dead or alive. We would like to see Mr. Tilden president, even if it was but for a few minutes.

The rumor that Samuel Tilden cuts cord-wood for exercise is not credited by this paper, but we wouldn't be surprised at him accepting a position as pitcher or catcher in some base ball club, in order not to get left by Sullivan.

For the benefit of any of our readers who expect to be hanged shortly, we beg to state that the latest fashion in gallows attire is pure white. This style was adopted at Macon, Georgia, last Friday.

THAT Hoosier widow who made such effective use of a blacksnake whip and a bull dog in protecting her fences would doubtless make a successful statesman if a chance were given her.

THE citizens of Africa are on the high road to civilization. They have gone to burning people for witchcraft, just like the Puritan forefathers did less than two hundred years ago.

About half the members of the Texas Legislature have been indicted for gambling. With the true instincts of statesmanship, however, they stole all the indictments.

Will infuse with new life the weakest invalid.

Dr. Walker & Co., Baltimore, Dec. 1882. For six years I have been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia, Constipation and general debility. I could not eat or retain anything on my stomach, in fact, I was reduced to a skeleton. Finally, when hope had almost left me, I procured a bottle of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS and commenced its use. I am now taking the third bottle and have not only gained weight, but am now in the best of health. I am now taking the third bottle and have not only gained weight, but am now in the best of health. I am now taking the third bottle and have not only gained weight, but am now in the best of health.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS will have a better tonic effect upon any one who needs "bracing up," than any medicine made.

Boyle's Revolving Barrel Churn.

Boyle's Revolving Barrel Churn without dash or paddle has accomplished a revolution in butter-making. It will make more butter out of the same amount of cream and a better quality with less labor than any other churn. A boy can churn ten gallons of cream with ease. It is suspended on its journals, and as it revolves, the cream falls from end to end, and the agitation being equal throughout the whole mass, the globules all separate at the same time and are preserved to a larger per cent. than by the old process. It follows that no hard churned cream is left in the buttermilk, or to mix with the butter, which would give it a bad appearance, the deal cream would injure its keeping quality and decrease its value. The cream acts upon the inner round surface of the barrel, and the butter is made by concussion and not by friction. The head is easily removed, and being air tight, the atmosphere is excluded, thereby holding the cream at the proper temperature. I am the agent for this churn for the State of Kentucky, and any one wanting to buy a churn or county right can find me for the present at Thos. Phillips' meat store.

my 25-in. SILEY LILLESTON.

In commendation of the Boyle Revolving Barrel Churn, the following well-known gentlemen of Paris and Bourbon county, speak as follows:

"It is easily worked and churns perfectly, bringing butter in twelve or fifteen minutes; it gathers perfectly and is easily cleaned."
W. W. MASSIE.

"I consider it superior to anything I have ever tried. It will make more butter and quicker, with less labor than any other churn."
W. W. GILL.

"Have used it three years; it is the best I ever used. It requires less labor in working and cleaning than any. Mine makes itself every year in the increase of butter."
J. L. THURDIE.

"It is easily worked, easily cleaned and makes it to all needing a churn."

Money due when the mare foals or is parted with. No other horse in Kentucky, of equal breeding and merit, stands for less than $50.

GOLDSMITH is a rich brown, heavy mane and tail, 15 hands, 3 inches high strong bone, due action, remarkably good disposition and sound in every particular. His colts are uniformly large, smooth and well galloped. He was sold by Mr. Alden Goldsmith when a colt to D. B. Haight, Dover Plains, N. Y., and owned by him until sold to me.

Mares from a distance kept 30 days, on grass, free. No responsibility for accidents. Also one of the best.

YOUNG BLACK JACKS

In Kentucky, 15 1/2 hands high, will serve mares at TEN DOLLARS and Jennets at TWENTY DOLLARS for living colt. No variation in price.

Lien retained on all colts of horse and jack until season money is paid.

ATTENTION, HORSEMEN!

We call the attention of the farmers and breeders of horse stock, that I breed at my place, horses for beauty and symmetry as well as for trotting purposes. If a careful inspection is due to the sire and offspring of any horse, I would then most respectfully call attention to Caliban and his offspring—some ten or twelve of which can now be seen at my stable. Caliban will be permitted to serve a limited number of mares the coming season, offered by first-class men (no others need apply), at $25 to insure.

Caliban has a record of 2:34, and in the opinion of such horse men as Dr. L. H. Herr, he could have trotted as well or better than 2:30 on the day which he has record.

Caliban is the sire of Cyclone and Coaster, both well worth better than 2:27.

STANDARD BEARER.

This celebrated horse will make the season of '83, at my stable, three miles from Millersburg and six from Paris on the Jackson pike, at Fifteen Dollars The Season, or Fifteen Dollars to insure a living colt.

STANDARD BEARER is a bay, foaled 1867; fifteen hands and three inches high; by Volunteer; dam, by Joe's Arabian Chief; Volunteer, by Rydyk's Hambletonian.

Like all the sons of Volunteer, Standard Bearer is proving himself a fine stock horse; his produce being large, finely formed, with superb action.

Also, my three-year-old youngjack, Lord Wellington,

15 hands and 1 inch high, good bone and length, will stand at Ten Dollars to insure a living colt.

Money due in both cases when the colt comes or mare parted with—lien retained on the colts until season money is paid.
